

Runza Rex Saves the Day

It was the day of the big football game and Runza Rex was wearing the number 60 in honor of Runza's 60th anniversary. He was running to the stadium because the pre-game Runza hamburger meal was about to be served to the team when all of a sudden out of no where comes an Oklahoma Sooner fan! As he charged right past the concession stand and hamburger meals trying to take one, he knocks them all over the team! Three words, "What a mess!".

All the security guards came rushing onto the field trying to catch him. He was so fast that he slipped through everyone and even made a guard trip. He had a domino affect and tripped all the other guards. It just turned into a disaster! The Sooner fan squeezed through all the stadium seats crawling on greasy leftover hot dogs, spilled pop, soggy popcorn, and melted ice while all the teammates were standing there wondering what they were going to eat. Everyone was confused! We had no hamburger meals or even a runza to eat, the field was a mess, and everyone started noticing that Runza Rex was missing! The Huskers had to play in little while and nothing was right! Something had to be done fast because we had more than 100 very large, starving football players waiting to eat a delicious meal from their favorite Runza restaurant.

All of a sudden over the loud speakers the Nebraska theme song started playing. We all started looking around and wondered what was going on. Out of the tunnel came Runza Rex who was directing a gigantic decorated trailer being pulled by none other than the Sooner fan who had caused this mess in the first place! The trailer was decorated with red and white sparkles, 60 red and white balloons and tables covered with tons of Runza hamburger meals and plenty of runzas to feed all the hungry players and some lucky fans.

Once again Runza Rex saved the day and the Sooner fan learned his lesson (not to mess with the Rex)! Most importantly the Huskers played a fantastic game that day, thanks to the tasty hamburger meals provided by the one and only Runza restaurant.
